I have always been drawn to sculpture as an art form and have wanted to try it out forever. I find sculpture more interactive than drawing and painting, if its big enough you can get in to a piece!

These pieces are my first ones and I have found it very satisfying. I wanted to be able to use my hands to express my creativity and have found life sculpture in clay the perfect medium for this.

I find it easier than life drawing, although I plan to revisit this now as I feel it will help to deepen my understanding of the human body and how to recreate the body in its many forms.

These first few pieces are just the first as I plan to continue on my sculpture journey.
